

LODGES

CAMPS INSTALL OFFICERS

Camps 61 and 509, P. O. S. of A., held their first meetings of the new year in the recently acquired home of the combined camps of this city, located at 217 North Fifth street. These were the two first branches of the organization to move to the home and they started the year by having their officers installed by District President Lewis A. Gaul. Camp 509 meets in the front hall, third floor, and Camp 61 in the rear hall on the same floor.

The officers installed in Camp 61 follow: Past president, C. L. Ebersole; president, Fred E. Obold; vice president, James J. Downs; master of forms, David M. Ebersole; conductor, Arthur I. Heller; inspector, James J. Ludwig; guard, Arthur J. Ludwig; financial secretary, Monroe D. George; recording secretary, George A. Price; treasurer, Thomas Sigman; trustee, H. Merrill Young; representatives on the home board, H. M. Young, Victor M. Shalters and M. D. George.

The new officers of Camp 509 follow: Past president, Robert R. Nagle; president, Raymond Hill; vice president, Arthur Nagle; master of forms, Raymond Marks; conductor, Clarence Bright; inspector, George J. Meltzer; guard, A. A. Crouse; financial secretary, George W. Crouse; recording secretary, Earl D.

Scheerer; treasurer, Edwin D. Gross; trustee, Frank Hemminger; representatives on the home board, George W. Crouse, Earl D. Scheerer and Paul E. Neill.

CASTLE INSTALLS OFFICERS

At a meeting of Mt. Penn Castle, No. 31, Knights of Golden Eagle, three degrees were conferred upon a large class of candidates. The degree work was in charge of Harvey P. Rollman, assisted by members of St. Lawrence Castle, No. 462, of Reifston.

The following officers were installed to serve six months: Noble chief, George A. Phillipson; vice chief, Clayton Kohl; sir herald, Calvin Austin; master of records, Ellis B. Moyer; clerk of exchequer, Harvey P. Rollman; keeper of exchequer, Clayton Epier; high priest, Jake Seidel; worthy bard, Lewis Young; past chief, Ed H. Phillipson; worthy chamberlain, David Snyder; esquire, Howard Ollinger; ensign, William Fry; venerable hermit, Charles Phillipson; first guard, George Fair; second guard, Monroe Trumbore; trustee, David Snyder; representative to Grand Castle, Harvey P. Rollman; alternate representative to Grand Castle, Leroy M. Berg. Refreshments were served. Next Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, the ladies and members and friends will be entertained by the entertainment committee.

CORDON CLUB ELECTS

The Cordon Club of the I. O. O. F. held its annual meeting at Odd Fellows' Temple and elected the following officers for 1933: President,

KIDNEY TROUBLES